Come and be a part of the Troy Ohio, Bicentennial Parade.

Troy is two hundred years old, and we invite you to be a part of the celebration.

The parade will step out at 4:30 P.M. on Saturday, September 20, 2014.

The Parade theme is Troy's Past, Present and Future. We will be presenting plaques to the top two floats, in each category.

The parade will start, at the intersection of West and South Market Streets, then proceeding north to the square, then west on Main Street, before turning left on Monroe Street. The parade will end at the intersection of Monroe Street and McKaig Avenue.

Grant Street will take you back to the staging areas.

Your staging information (complete with map, passes and other information) will be mailed out early September

Please note that the parade positioning is determined by the parade committee, with the goal of making the parade entertaining for the beginning to the end.

A signed release form is necessary prior to your unit's inclusion in the parade. Any application submitted without a signature may be rejected.

We are excited about the Bicentennial Celebration Parade and look forward to your participation.

Please complete and return the application by August 29, 2014. If you have any questions please call. Phone number (937) 339-8955.

Sincerely

Paul (Jody) Davis
Parade Chairman
